

Vacancy – Process Analyst – Bulmers Clonmel

Reporting to the QA manager, you will have responsibility for ensuring fermentations and associated processes are Right First Time.

The key responsibilities for this role include:

- Accountable for achievement of fermentation Quality KPIs.
- Responsible for carrying out chemical, microbiological and sensory analysis as documented in the quality plans.
- Isolation of Yeast & Bacterial Strains from selected Processes
- Manage Processes associated with Cider Fermentation..
- Support production on the management of fermentations
- Attend Operations team meetings and be involved in quality improvement and problem resolution
- Compiling, trending and communication of Quality reports.

The Candidate:

- Recognised Science qualification .
- Experience in Chemical or Microbiological analysis would be an advantage.
- Knowledge of HACCP and Quality Systems combined with excellent IT skills.
- Good interpersonal and communications skills are required for this role with strong planning and organisational ability.

Regards

Bob Beadle
Bulmers QA Manager
Clonmel
Tel: 00353 527448202
Mob: 00353 86 6013381