Lunchtime Concert

1.30pm – 2.30pm @ St. Brendan's GNS, The Glen

Featuring flute students of the CITCSM outreach programme
(lecturer - Caoimhe Conlon)

St. Brendan's School Band consists of all the students from third to sixth class. Once a week, normal schoolwork is put aside for music lessons with a variety of tutors. The students receive tuition in recorder, flute, trumpet, guitar, and percussion and regularly perform in various locations around the city. Once finished in primary school the students are each given a place in an after school programme to continue with their music lessons, an option many of the students choose to take throughout secondary school and college.

Open Forum & Music Workshops

7.00 - 9.30pm: All welcome but booking required:

7.00 - 8.00pm: Open forum/discussion on Community Music in Cork

8.00pm - 9.00pm: Choice of workshops

1. Music and Health with Music Alive (Caoimhe Conlon + Edel Sullivan - www.musicalive.ie)

2. Anyone Can Sing (Fiona O'Reilly – www.anyonecansing.ie)

9.00pm - 9.30pm: Future directions

Cork Community Music Network's Spring event continues with an Open Forum on Community Music in the city, followed by a choice of workshops; either Music & Health or Anyone Can Sing – note that no ability to read music is necessary.

The Open Forum is an opportunity to discuss the current situation regarding community music and how the Network (CCMN) might help support existing and future activities. This is intended to be one of a series of CCMN events, probably quarterly. Network members meet occasionally to share ideas, resources and training.

Organised by Cork Community Music Network in association with CIT Cork School of Music, with workshops run by Music Alive www.musicalive.ie and Anyone Can Sing www.anyonecansing.ie
