Chartered Accountants Ireland (CAI)

Chartered Accountants are Ireland's leading business professionals, providing essential strategic guidance, expertise and consulting across a vast array of business activities and sectors. Recognised and respected internationally, a qualification in Chartered Accountancy brings global mobility, with Chartered Accountants in demand both at home and abroad. Chartered Accountants play a pivotal role in the modern organisation and this is reflected in their career path – as a result their promotion is more rapid than in other professions. What's more, they enjoy a high level of career mobility, applying their broad skills to business challenges in virtually every corporate sector.

This dynamism and flexibility means that Chartered Accountants frequently enter diverse roles such as financial management, corporate finance and leadership. The possibilities are endless: from sole practitioner to Chief Executive of a multinational. That's why choosing to become a Chartered Accountant may be the smartest career move you ever make.

Chartered Accountants Ireland's Elevation Programme offers new routes to the Chartered Accountancy qualification for Graduates, Non-Graduates and Accounting Technicians. We know that school leavers, college students, those just entering the workplace or currently out of work, and more experienced, mature people all want to study to become a Chartered Accountant in a more flexible format outside of a training contract. For all such people from disparate backgrounds, we offer one solution that we collectively call the Elevation Programme.

Entry Requirements

The Elevation Programme is available to graduates (including graduates from our partner body, Accounting Technicians Ireland), non-graduates and School Leavers. Candidates joining the Elevation programme with at least four years' work experience prior to joining the Institute as a student may sit all exams up to and including the Final Admitting Exam (FAE) before getting relevant accountancy experience. If you come to Chartered Accountancy studies with less than four years' work experience in any field, the only stipulation is that you must evidence one year's relevant experience prior to sitting your final (FAE) exams.

Programme Outline

Chartered Accountants Ireland is proud to partner with CIT for the delivery of CAP1 and CAP2 courses in Cork. Classes take place on evenings and weekends and the timetable is designed to offer students a healthy work/study balance. With a superb, dedicated lecturing panel, students in Cork have excelled in their examinations, claiming some of the best exam results over the past number of years. The classes take place in the CIT Bishopstown Campus.
