

Art Events

Monday 26th March

9am - all day

Exhibition runs until 12 April

James Barry Exhibition Centre, CIT Bishopstown Campus.

Locations Contained - Exhibition By Lana Shuks

This is the first solo exhibition by CIT Crawford College of Art & Design graduate Lana Shuks.

She was awarded the CIT Registrar's Prize last June, for her paintings focussing on Cork's Docklands and Tivoli container yards.

Since then, her work has responded to travels in snow-covered Finland and a fascination with back gardens.

A number of new large paintings capturing fleeting moments and memories are also included.

Supported by CIT Registrar and Arts Office

To preview the artist's work visit www.lanashuks.com or E: art@lanashuks.com .

Tuesday 27th March

6.30pm

CIT Crawford College of Art & Design, Ground Floor Exhibition Space

Sullivan's Quay Campus

Exhibition opening – work by evening students

All welcome to the opening of an exhibition of current work by students attending the various evening courses at the CIT Crawford College of Art & Design. Info: 433 5246 The exhibition is part of the college's centenary celebrations – Crawford 100 - check out www.cit.ie for further events this week & all year. The Sullivan's Quay campus is in the former FÁS & Tax offices. Exhibition continues Mon – Fri until the 13th April.

Wednesday 28th March

6.30pm

Lecture Theatre

CIT Crawford College of Art & Design, Sharman Crawford Street

1912 Exile & Return: James Joyce & John Cage

All welcome to a lecture by Pdraig Trehly, who teaches Film & Contemporary Visual Culture. Joyce left Ireland for good in 1912, Cage was born the same year. Cage's fascination with Joyce culminated in his Roaratorio based on Finnegans Wake which was composed in 1979 - the year the building here became an art college. T: 433 5246 Check out www.cit.ie for events all year celebrating Crawford 100.

Thursday 29th March

6.30pm

Lecture Theatre

CIT Crawford College of Art & Design. Sharman Crawford St

Ireland in 1912: design & national identity

As part of the Crawford 100 celebrations, Sarah Foster, Department of Art History at CIT Crawford College of Art & Design, reflects on design a century ago. Info: 021 4335246.

Check out www.cit.ie for further Crawford 100 events this week and throughout the year.

Friday 30th March

1.30pm – 4.30pm

Lecture Space

CIT Crawford College of Art & Design, 1st Floor, Sullivan's Quay Campus

Visit the Departments of Art Therapy & Continuing Visual Education

Presentations on the courses run in the department that involve using the arts in social & health contexts. They include the MA in Art Therapy/ Principles of Art Therapy/ Arts in Group Facilitation & Arts Participation & Development. T: 4335246

Check out www.cit.ie for Crawford 100 events this week and throughout the year.
