

Tuesday 19th March

Art Exhibition

9am – 8pm every day except Sunday @ the James Barry Exhibition Centre, CIT Bishopstown Campus.

Registrar's Prize Winner artist Norma Walsh's debut solo exhibition runs until the 27th March, Norma will give a talk on Thursday at 12.30pm., see below for details.

Art by Adult Learners

9.00am - 8.00pm @ Room D242, First Floor Gallery, Student Centre, CIT Bishopstown Campus.
Exhibition continues until the end of March.

Official opening today. All the art work in this exhibition is created by adults with learning difficulties who attend three different daycare centres run by Lota Brothers of Charity.

Info Focus Centre T: 455 6269

Thursday 21st March

Artist shares lifelong learning experience

12.30pm - 2.30pm @ the James Barry Exhibition Centre, CIT Bishopstown Campus.

The CIT Registrar's Prizewinner, artist Norma Walsh, whose exhibition Soundings in Fathoms is on display, discusses her work & shares her own lifelong learning journey. This will be of particular interest to anyone hoping to return to education.

Norma Walsh

Friday 22nd March

Continuing Visual Education Exhibition.

6.30pm @ CIT College of Art & Design Sullivan's Quay Campus (old FÁS/Government Buildings)

All welcome to the opening of the annual CIT Crawford College of Art & Design, Continuing Visual Education Exhibition.

Info: Ed Kuczaj,

Head of Art Therapy & Continuing Visual Education

T: 433 5246 E: ed.kuczaj@cit.ie

See www.artincontext.eu for details of courses & other activities.

